Travel insurance

Berkshire Hathaway Travel Protection, policy `201350715`, purchased 21 July 2026 and covering this trip. This is the replacement policy issued with the correct number of flight segments, so it is the one to quote. The full document is in the trip email thread.

Weather and conditions

Early November is the front edge of the cool, dry season, but it is a front edge rather than a guarantee. The Andaman is still drying out — expect a wet afternoon or two around Krabi. The island day used to be the one to move freely; now that the longtail is booked, the decision has a deadline: 09:00 on 7 November, while cancellation is still free. Khao Sok is at its lushest precisely because the rain has only just stopped. Sea state is the thing that cancels boat trips, so ask at the hotel desk the evening before rather than the morning of.

Cash

Card works nearly everywhere, but three things on this trip are cash-only. The big one is in Chiang Mai: the THB 8,400 balance for Elephant Nature Park, payable in Thai baht on the morning of the 6th. Draw it on the 5th. The other two are at Khao Sok: the national park fee of THB 340 per person on arrival and THB 200 each for the Pakarang cave trail — draw those before you leave Krabi, as there is no ATM on the lake.

Still to book

Every night, every flight and six activities are now confirmed: the Manohra dinner cruise on the 1st, Ayutthaya on the 3rd, Doi Inthanon on the 5th, Elephant Nature Park on the 6th, the 9 Islands longtail on the 8th and the Emerald Pool / Tiger Cave tour on the 9th. One thing is left to book: the two cave trails at Khao Sok, arranged at the resort — they have fixed departure times and run only on certain days, so ask on arrival rather than the morning of. One thing is left to confirm, and it matters more: the Ayutthaya station drop-off on the 3rd.

Day by day

November 1 — Sunday

BANGKOK

Sawatdee khrap — welcome to Thailand

You land at Suvarnabhumi after roughly 21 hours in transit and a 12-hour time shift. Take it gently; the day is built to be abandoned if you need to sleep.

EK374 arrives 07:35

Dubai → Bangkok Suvarnabhumi (BKK), Airbus A380. Booking reference `H2M5FJ`.

Airport to the hotel by rail

Clear immigration, then follow the signs down to the Airport Rail Link on the basement level of the terminal. Three steps, about 45–50 minutes in total, roughly THB 65 each:

1. City Line towards Phaya Thai, alighting at Makkasan (A6) — about 25 minutes, THB 35. Buy a token at the machine or tap a contactless card.

2. Follow the 166 m covered skywalk from Makkasan to MRT Phetchaburi — five minutes, longer with cases.

3. MRT Blue Line towards Hua Lamphong, four stops: Sukhumvit, Queen Sirikit, Khlong Toei, Lumphini. Leave by Exit 1, which feeds a walkway into One Bangkok; the hotel is inside it, about 300 m from the door — noticeably better with cases than walking from Ploen Chit. A taxi is 45 to 90 minutes depending on the expressway.

Check in — The Ritz-Carlton, Bangkok

Confirmation `90034653` · 2 nights · Deluxe Room, 1 King, Park View. Standard check-in is 15:00, but early check-in is one of your Edit benefits — ask at the desk. If the room isn't ready, leave the bags and start the day anyway.

Use The Edit benefits — this stay only

Booking through The Edit includes breakfast for two daily, a USD 100 property credit (once per stay, not against room rate, tax or gratuities), a welcome amenity, Wi-Fi, and a room upgrade plus early check-in and late check-out, all subject to availability. None of it is applied automatically — ask for each. U Chiang Mai and Centara were booked through Chase Travel too, but neither carries these.

Wat Pho

The reclining Buddha, 46 m of gilded plaster, and the country's oldest centre of massage teaching. A foot massage at the temple's own school is the correct way to spend the first afternoon.

Manohra dining cruise — 20:00, booked

Reservation `YQGNYS` · two people · prepaid THB 11,000, non-refundable. A converted teak rice barge from the Anantara Riverside pier on the Thonburi bank, up the Chao Phraya past Wat Arun and the Grand Palace lit from the water. Premium set menu with free-flow wine and beer. Getting there: MRT Lumphini → Si Lom, cross to BTS Sala Daeng → Saphan Taksin, then the free Anantara shuttle boat from Sathorn pier every 15 minutes — about an hour door to door, so leave by 18:00 and be at the pier by 19:00.

Confirm the boarding time — and it is a late night

The reservation reads 20:00, but Manohra's published cruise departs 19:30 with check-in from 19:15; you are booked on the "Third Round" seating, so the times may differ. Settle it when you call about dietary requirements — `riversidedining@anantara.com` or 02 476 0022. Back at the hotel around 23:00, after 21 hours of travelling across a 12-hour shift. Keep the afternoon soft; this is the one fixed point of the day.

November 2 — Monday

BANGKOK

Grand Palace & Wat Phra Kaew

Be there at opening. The Emerald Buddha sits in the royal chapel; the complex is the single most crowded thing you will do all fortnight, and the heat compounds it. Shoulders and knees covered.

Wat Arun

Cross by ferry. Climb the central prang for the view back over the river.

Optional — Jim Thompson House

Six teak houses assembled by the American who rebuilt the Thai silk trade and then vanished in the Malaysian jungle in 1967. A cool, shaded hour.

Yaowarat after dark

Chinatown's street-food stretch. Go hungry and eat standing up.

The Ritz-Carlton, Bangkok

Second night. Breakfast for two is included — it is an Edit benefit, not a room-rate inclusion, so mention it.

November 3 — Tuesday

BANGKOK → THE NIGHT TRAIN

Ayutthaya, a private full day — 09:00, booked

GetYourGuide reference `GYG996VK39Z9` · two adults · USD 299.42 paid in full. Ten hours, private car and English-speaking guide, operated by TripGuru Thailand. It is a customise-your-own product — TripGuru will help you pick the temples if you ask. Pick-up from the Ritz-Carlton lobby; they confirm the time one or two days ahead. Free cancellation until 09:00 on 2 November.

Check out before you leave — you are not coming back

The tour collects you at 09:00 and the day ends at a railway station 80 km north. Check-out is 12:00, so settle it on the way out. Late check-out is worthless to you now, whatever The Edit entitles you to. You have asked TripGuru to keep two backpacks in the car for the day.

Special Express #9 — boarding at Ayutthaya, 19:45

The ticket reads Krung Thep Aphiwat (KTW) 18:40 → Chiang Mai (CGM) 07:15, reservation `34511470`, two 2nd-class A/C berths. You are joining it at Ayutthaya instead, which Thai Railways confirmed by email on 7 September: "Yes, absolutely… the train is scheduled to depart from Ayutthaya at 19:45." The ticket stays valid; you forfeit the first 63 minutes you already paid for. Be on the platform by 19:15 — the booked stop is about two minutes, so know which end of the platform your coach stops at before the train appears. Ask at the Ayutthaya ticket window when you arrive.

The whole evening rests on the drop-off, which is NOT yet agreed

The tour as sold ends where it began — back at the Ritz-Carlton. A ten-hour day starting at 09:00 finishes at 19:00, which cannot reach the 18:40 out of Bangkok under any circumstances. So the Ayutthaya drop-off is not a convenience, it is load-bearing. You emailed `reservations@thetripguru.com` on 20 September asking for exactly that, plus luggage storage in the car. Get a written yes before 2 November, which is when free cancellation ends and your last cheap exit closes. If they refuse, the tour has to be cut short by mid-afternoon and you go back for the Bangkok departure instead.

Dress code and cash

The ruins enforce a temple dress code: no exposed shoulders, underarms, back or knees, so carry a scarf or long-sleeved shirt. Site entry fees are not included in the tour price — bring cash. A combined pass covering six of the temples is sold at the gates and is worth it from about four sites onward.

November 4 — Wednesday

CHIANG MAI

Arrive Chiang Mai 07:15

Thirteen hours north and about six degrees cooler.

Check in — U Chiang Mai

Confirmation `2535552787` · Deluxe with Bathtub, 1 King, inside the moat. The room is held from the 3rd, the night you were on the train — paid deliberately so it is yours the moment you step off the sleeper, whatever the train does. Non-refundable. Breakfast is extra, about THB 399 each.

The Old City on foot

Wat Chedi Luang, whose 15th-century chedi lost its top thirty metres to an earthquake, and Wat Phra Singh. The quiet lanes between the two are the actual pleasure.

Wat Phra That Doi Suthep — this afternoon or not at all

The gold chedi on the mountain above the city, reached by 306 steps flanked by naga balustrades. An hour up, an hour back. The 5th and 6th are now both full-day booked tours, so this afternoon is the only slot it has left.

Night Bazaar and khao soi

The north's signature dish: egg noodles in a coconut curry broth, crisp noodles on top, pickled mustard greens and lime alongside.

November 5 — Thursday

CHIANG MAI

Doi Inthanon private tour — 08:30, booked

Tripadvisor reference `1444673351`, TripGuru reference `7E51T410N0DP` · two adults · USD 250 paid in full. Thailand's highest peak, the waterfalls and the twin royal chedis, as a private full-day tour with an English-speaking guide. Hotel pick-up and drop-off, air-conditioned vehicle, drinking water and the entrance fees (Doi Inthanon THB 300, Twin Pagoda THB 100) are all included. Lunch is not. Free cancellation up to 24 hours before.

Two things TripGuru needs from you first

1. Your WhatsApp number and the hotel name, sent before 18:00 the day before — miss that and they collect you at a meeting point rather than the hotel. They email between 19:00 and 21:00 the night before with the details. 2. Passport name, number and date of birth for both of you on their insurance form, which is required before the tour runs. Do both now. `reservations@thetripguru.com`.

Nimman in the evening

The café and craft-beer district west of the moat. Where Chiang Mai goes when it isn't being a temple town.

U Chiang Mai

November 6 — Friday

CHIANG MAI

Elephant Nature Park — Elephant Highlands, booked

Booking `55796` · two adults · THB 12,000 total. A genuine sanctuary: feeding and observing, no riding. Hotel pick-up from U Chiang Mai between 08:00 and 08:45 — wait in the lobby, and check your name with the driver, because not every pick-up vehicle carries the park's logo. Vegan lunch, transport, admission, insurance and an English-speaking guide are included.

THB 8,400 in cash, on the morning

Only the THB 3,600 deposit has been paid. The THB 8,400 balance must be settled in Thai baht at the start of the trip — not by card, not in advance. Draw it in Chiang Mai on the 5th. This is the largest cash requirement of the fortnight.

Confirm the pick-up point 72 hours ahead

If the park has not been told your pick-up point within 72 hours of the trip, you are expected to start from their office at 1 Ratmakka Road instead. `info@elephantnaturepark.org` or +66 53 272855.

It is a walking day, and a muddy one

Moderate to fit: mountainsides and slopes, up to 3½ hours of walking, often muddy. A change of clothes and footwear is essential, plus a towel, hat, sunscreen, repellent and a refillable bottle — in one small day pack each, which is the whole baggage allowance.

Repack tonight

Tomorrow starts early — you are away from the hotel by about 06:00.

November 7 — Saturday

KRABI

FD3072 — Chiang Mai 07:55 → Krabi 09:55

Thai AirAsia, A320, non-stop. Booking `UYTUHF`. Roughly two hours in the air.

Krabi airport to Ao Nang

About 30 minutes.

Check in — Centara Ao Nang Beach Resort & Spa

Confirmation `2535573436` · 3 nights · Deluxe Room, 1 King, Pool Access. You land well before check-in at 15:00 — leave the bags at reception and start on the beach. Two things to ask for on arrival: a room away from the drainage canal that runs between the wings, which is a recurring smell complaint, and confirmation of the pool-access room you paid for. Non-refundable; breakfast extra, around THB 325–650 each.

First Andaman sunset

Afternoon on the sand, then a long seafood dinner.

November 8 — Sunday

KRABI

9 Islands private longtail — booked

GetYourGuide reference `GYGVN22MBRVZ` · eight hours · USD 299.43 paid in full. Operated by krabiteerapongtour. The booking is for a private boat (priced as a group of up to five, so it is just the two of you) — the route and the pace are yours to settle with the boatman rather than a fixed shared-seat circuit.

Pick-up from the Centara lobby — time still to be confirmed

The operator collects you from the hotel lobby and returns you to the same place. They contact you to fix the pick-up time within 48 hours of booking — booked 20 September, so expect that by the 22nd, and chase them if it does not come: `+66 81 078 5454`.

Confirm the date when they call

The confirmation email does not print the activity date. 8 November is inferred from the cancellation deadline — GetYourGuide allows free cancellation until 24 hours before the start, and the stated deadline is 09:00 on the 7th. It matches the plan, but have them say the date out loud when they ring.

No guide, no meals

Neither is included. Carry cash for a beach lunch and plenty of water. Bring swimwear, sunglasses and reef-safe sunscreen — oxybenzone sunscreens are banned in Thai marine national parks. National park rules apply on the islands: no touching or handling marine life.

The weather call now has a deadline

Early-November seas are still unsettled and boat trips are the first thing cancelled. You can still cancel for a full refund until 09:00 on 7 November — which is the morning you fly into Krabi. Check the forecast and the sea state as soon as you land, because after that the money is spent whatever the weather does. The 9th is no longer a free swap — the Emerald Pool tour is booked too, and its own deadline is 08:00 on the 8th. Two consecutive mornings, two decisions; make them both when you land on the 7th.

November 9 — Monday

KRABI

Emerald Pool, Hot Springs and Tiger Cave — 08:00, booked

GetYourGuide reference `GYGN6BWWFQFY` · two adults · USD 115.82 paid in full. A small-group tour running nine and a half hours, operated by TripGuru Thailand. The order of the day: a swim in the Emerald Pool, a walk along the Blue Lagoon, lunch, the Hot Springs Waterfall, and finally the climb to Tiger Cave Temple. English-speaking guide, hotel pick-up and drop-off, drinking water and every entrance fee are included. Free cancellation until 08:00 on 8 November.

The 1,260 steps are the last thing you do, not the first

The old plan had Tiger Cave at dawn precisely because the climb is brutal in the heat. This tour puts it at the end of a nine-and-a-half-hour day, in the afternoon. Nothing to be done about the running order — just know it is coming and keep something in reserve. The summit view over the whole Krabi plain is the reward.

Dress code, and what to carry

Some sites on this tour enforce a temple dress code: no sleeveless shirts, and shoulders, underarms, back and knees covered. Carry a sarong or scarf to throw on. Also swimwear, a towel, a change of clothes, hat, sunscreen, insect repellent and cash — lunch is not listed among the inclusions.

Pick-up: they email the night before

TripGuru confirm the exact pick-up time and meeting point by email the evening before, and the booking portal carries it from 19:00–21:00. Be in the Centara lobby ten minutes early. The guide carries a TripGuru sign and will wait a maximum of ten minutes. Morning traffic in Ao Nang runs heavier than the map apps predict.

Long drive tomorrow

Repack tonight and keep one small bag accessible — you climb down stairs into a boat tomorrow and the big cases can stay at the pier office.

November 10 — Tuesday

KHAO SOK

Leave Krabi by 09:00

About 2 hours by road to the 500Rai Pier Office at Chiew Larn. The private car is included in the resort package. Leave early enough for slack at the pier — you need to pay the park fee and get bags down to the boat before it goes, not arrive dead on the hour.

Longtail across Cheow Lan Lake — 12:00

About 1.5 hours, sightseeing on the way, and the resort appears like a floating village under the karsts. Boats out to the resort leave the pier at 12:00 or 15:30 only. Miss the 12:00 and you arrive after the sunset cruise below.

THB 340 each, in cash

The national park fee, payable on arrival and not included in the package. Bring it in cash.

Check in — 360° Issara Floating Resort

Booking `0592406` · 3 nights · the 3-Night Essence package, all-in. Check-in from 14:00. Air-conditioning runs 12:00–06:00 only, and that applies to all three nights.

Wildlife safari & sunset cruise — 17:00

Included. Swim off the deck first; set dinner is served over the water.

November 11 — Wednesday

KHAO SOK

Pakarang Cave Trail — 09:45

The one fixed thing today: a 1.5 km trek plus a bamboo raft. THB 200 each, cash, not included.

Then nothing at all

Kayak straight off your own balcony — every room has one. Swim in the fresh water, read, watch the light move across the karsts. This is the day the trip is built around.

November 12 — Thursday

KHAO SOK

Morning on the lake

Sightseeing along the shoreline — gibbons, hornbills, and elephants if you are lucky.

Prakai Petch Cave Trail — confirm this one

Swamp forest, small waterfalls and a glittering cave. The resort lists it as running Mon / Wed / Sat, and the 12th is a Thursday — so confirm it on arrival rather than counting on it. The morning lake trip above is the fallback.

Last sunset cruise — 17:00

Pack tonight

Check-out is 10:00 and tomorrow is the tightest day of the trip.

November 13 — Friday

KHAO SOK → BANGKOK

Check out 10:00, boat out at 10:30

This is the only scheduled boat back. It feeds a non-refundable flight the same afternoon, so reconfirm it with the resort the day before and don't plan on arranging something later.

Chiew Larn to Surat Thani

At the airport (URT) around 13:00, which leaves roughly three and a half hours in hand.

SL741 — Surat Thani 16:40 → Don Mueang 17:55

Thai Lion Air, arriving Terminal 2. Reservation code `OWUPXU`. Note this is Don Mueang, not Suvarnabhumi.

Into the city by rail, not road

Take the SRT Red Line to Krung Thep Aphiwat, then the MRT to Sukhumvit. It's a Friday and the roads will be at their worst; the train is elevated and ignores them. Reckon on being checked in around 19:00–19:30.

Check in — Grande Centre Point Terminal 21

Travelocity itinerary `73523066938869` · 1 night · Executive Suite for two. The hotel sits on top of the Asok interchange, so dinner is downstairs. Non-refundable.

November 14 — Saturday

BANGKOK → HOME

A half day, not a full one

Check out at 12:00 and leave the bags at the desk. You have about five hours, so keep it central — ICONSIAM, Jim Thompson House, a last massage. Nothing that needs the better part of a day — and Ayutthaya is already behind you, done properly on the 3rd.

Leave by 17:00 — and mind the airport

You arrived at Don Mueang yesterday but fly home from Suvarnabhumi. They are 50 km apart. From Asok it is one MRT stop to Phetchaburi and straight onto the Airport Rail Link at Makkasan — about 30 minutes, and no traffic to allow for.

EK373 — 20:45 to Dubai, then JFK

Suvarnabhumi 20:45 → Dubai, connecting to New York JFK at 08:15 Sunday. Booking `H2M5FJ`. At the airport by about 17:45.

Chok dee

Fourteen days, thirteen nights, five bases and four ways of travelling between them. Safe flight home.
